

Your Vote Is Your Voice: Registering on Election Day

With the Nov. 6 election just days away it is vital all Wisconsinites have a valid proof of residence whether voting by mail, in-person at the clerk's office, or at the polls on Election Day. You can check your registration at MyVote.wi.gov, and click here to request your absentee ballot.

If you are not already registered go to MyVote.wi.gov to find your polling place, and register at the polls on Election Day. If you plan to register at the polls you still need a valid proof of residence as well as a State Issued ID to cast your ballot.

Below is a list of deadlines and resources to help insure you do not miss your opportunity to have your voice heard:
