116TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. _____

To defer the removal of individuals to the Lao People's Democratic Republic for a 72-month period, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. MCCOLLUM introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To defer the removal of individuals to the Lao People's Democratic Republic for a 72-month period, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Hmong and Lao Ref-
5 ugee Deportation Prohibition Act of 2020".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) Since 1975, nearly 200,000 refugees from 2 the Lao People's Democratic Republic (Lao P.D.R),
3 including persons of Hmong, Lao, Khmu, and Mien
4 or Yao descent, have resettled in the U.S. as perma-
5 nent residents or become citizens.

6 (2) Beginning in the 1950's in Laos, Hmong
7 soldiers fought the Communist Pathet Lao move-
8 ment, and many Hmong and Lao later assisted U.S.
9 forces during the Vietnam War.

10 (3) The House Judiciary Committee reported in 11 2000, "At great personal peril and loss of life, the 12 Hmong fought with American forces and performed
13 critical roles in dangerous missions."

14 (4) A former CIA officer stated to the Sub-15 committee on Immigration and Claims that,
16 "[t]hroughout the war, CIA's paramilitary forces 17 collected intelligence, used it in combat operations to 18 tie down some 50,000 North Vietnamese forces in 19 Laos, rescued downed American pilots and protected
20 sensitive American installations at remote mountain 21 tops. . ."

22 (5) P.L. 106-207, the Hmong Veterans Natu-
23 ralization Act of 2000, provided thousands of 24 Hmong refugees resettled to the U.S. who served 25 with a special guerrilla unit, or irregular forces, op-

1 erating from a base in Laos in support of the United 2 States military at any time during the period begin-3 ning February 28, 1961, and ending September 18, 4 1978 with exemptions from certain provision of the 5 Immigration and Naturalization Act.

6 (6) In 2000, it was reported by the House Judi-7 ciary Committee in Report 106-563 that “many 8 Hmong refugees have found it difficult to naturalize
9 because of a difficulty learning English. This is due 10 to the facts that they came from a tribal society 11 without a written language until recent decades and 12 that many Hmong were recruited to be guerrillas at 13 the age of 12-14 and hence did not attend school.”

14 (7) Scholars argue that the U.S. insufficiently
15 resettled refugees from Laos leaving many ill-pre-16 pared for immediate work, unacculturated, and suf-
17 fering psychosocial trauma resulting in cycles of pov-18 erty. In 2016, 37.8 percent of Hmong and 18.5 per-19 cent of Lao in the U.S. were living in poverty.

20 (8) There are currently over 4,700 long-time 21 U.S. residents of Hmong, Lao, Khmu, and Mien or 22 Yao descent with Final Orders for Removal who 23 were born in the Lao P.D.R., fled persecution in 24 Laos, were resettled in the U.S. as refugees, and

1 now face deportation to Laos due to past criminal 2 convictions.

3 (9) Individuals with Final Orders for Removal
4 who could be deported to Lao P.D.R. often do not 5 speak the Lao language, lack familial connections,
6 and are at risk of being target for human rights
7 abuses as a result of historic support for U.S. anti-8 communist policies.

9 (10) A 2018 Department of State Laos Human 10 Rights Report acknowledges the long record of 11 human rights abuses in the Lao P.D.R. The report 12 states, “The government neither prosecuted nor 13 punished officials who committed abuses, and police
14 and security forces committed human rights abuses 15 with impunity.”

16 (11) The Lao P.D.R. is a communist state that 17 does not currently have an official deportation agree-
18 ment with the U.S. and there is no extradition treat-
19 y between the Laos and the U.S.

20 (12) Many of the over 4,700 persons with Final 21 Orders of Removal who are at risk of deportation to 22 the Lao P.D.R. have not been able to seek adequate 23 immigration relief based on the complexity of the re-
24 quired legal filings and the backlogs in immigration 25 courts. It can take several years for an individual to 1 seek to reopen their immigration case and have their 2 eligibility for immigration relief decided on the mer-3 its.

4 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

5 It is the sense of the Congress that—

6 (1) individuals of Hmong, Lao, Khmu, and 7 Mien or Yao descent who arrived in the U.S. as ref-
8ugees fleeing persecution in the Lao People's Demo-
9cratic Republic shall not be deported to Laos for a 10 period of 72 months; and

11 (2) the Trump administration's efforts to de-
12port more than 4,700 individuals of Hmong, Lao,
13 Khmu, and Mien or Yao descent residing in the U.S.
14 to the Lao People's Democratic Republic puts these 15 individuals at grave risk, is unnecessary to ensure 16 public safety, and cruelly inflicts trauma and harm 17 on Hmong-American and Lao-American families and 18 communities that are making significant contribu-
19 tions to the strength and success of the U.S.

20 SEC. 4. DEFERRAL OF REMOVAL TO THE LAO PEOPLE'S 21 DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC FOR INDIVIDUALS
22 WITH REMOVAL ORDERS.

23 (a) DEFERRAL OF REMOVAL.—An alien may not be 24 removed for the 72-month period beginning on the date
25 of enactment of this Act if the alien—

1 (1) is an individual born in the Lao People's 2 Democratic Republic or colonial French administra-
3 tion of the present-day Lao People's Democratic Re-
4 public;

5 (2) has been ordered removed to Lao People's 6 Democratic Republic at any time before the date of 7 enactment of this Act; and

8 (3) resided in the United States on or before 9 January 1, 2011.

10 (b) EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION.—Upon applica-
11 tion to the Secretary of Homeland Security, an alien
12 whose removal is deferred pursuant to this Act—

13 (1) shall be authorized to engage in employ-14 ment during the 72-month period described in sub-15 section (a); and

16 (2) shall be issued an employment authorization
17 document that remains valid for 24 months subject 18 to renewal.

19 (c) IMPLEMENTATION.—The Secretary of Homeland
20 Security shall take the necessary steps to implement—

21 (1) the deferral of removal authorized under 22 this section; and

23 (2) the authorization of employment described 24 in subsection (b).

1 SEC. 7. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

2 (a) REVIEW.—Notwithstanding any other provision 3 of law, an individual or entity who has been harmed by 4 a violation of this Act may file an action in an appropriate
5 district court of the United States to seek declaratory or 6 injunctive relief.

7 (b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this Act 8 may be construed to preclude an action filed pursuant to 9 subsection (a) from proceeding as a class action (as such 10 term is defined in section 1711 of title 28, United States 11 Code).
